A person who entertains in a public space for donations

Please refer to the back of this card for information related to busking between Museum Wharf and Tall Ships Quay on the Halifax waterfront.

Develop Nova Scotia believes busking adds to the vibrancy of our city and waterfront.

Please keep in mind:

- Spaces are available between Museum Wharf and Tall Ships Quay 'On the Honour, On the Hour.'
- You do not need a permit to busk on the Halifax waterfront and there is no audition process.
- The waterfront is open for family-friendly entertainment.
- The use of sharp or dangerous objects is prohibited, including juggling knives, chainsaws, hatchets and flaming objects.
- Please be respectful of nearby businesses and residents in terms of noise levels.
- Please be respectful of pedestrian flow and safety by keeping corridors clear.
- Donations can be accepted but should not be expected from audience members.
- Certain areas may be not available for busking. At the discretion of Develop Nova Scotia, you may be directed to another area.
